

December 13, 1951

Dear Folk Dancer:

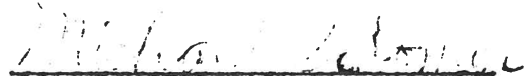

As announced at last Tuesday's session, it will be necessary for us to move back to Burkhardt Center next Tuesday, December 18. Remember, the location is 3000 E. Fifth St., corner Fifth & Jersey. And the time will be as usual, 8:30 p.m.

With this next session you will complete the first quarter of the series. Our record shows you have now had 14 dances, representing 8 nationalities. They are as follows:

ALEXANDROVSKY	Russian
BLACK HAWK WALTZ	American
CIRCLE FROM SARID	Palestinian
DORIS WALTZ	English
FAMILY WALTZ	Scandinavian
FINGER POLKA	Lithuanian
JESSIE POLKA	American
JIBI-DI JIBI-DA	French
VARSOUVIANA	American
KALVELIS	Lithuanian
KOROBUSHKA	Russian
ST BERNARD WALTZ	Scottish
THE ROBERTS	Scottish
MERRY WIDOW WALTZ	American

If memory serves us right, you have received directions for five of the dances: BLACK HAWK WALTZ, DORIS WALTZ, VARSOUVIANA, KALVELIS, and ST BERNARD WALTZ. Five others, we feel, are simple enough to require no written directions: you should become quite familiar with them after another session or two. These are: FAMILY WALTZ, FINGER POLKA, JESSIE POLKA, JIBI-DI JIBI-DA, and THE ROBERTS. Enclosed are the directions for KOROBUSHKA, and the remaining three we hope to have for you in due time.

We hope everyone will plan to attend next week's session, since if you miss it, it will be three weeks before there will be another. There will be no sessions during the holidays. This means that after December 18, we won't have another until January 8.
