Dear Member:

The Miami Valley Dance Council has had a long rest since our first annual festival last October. It is time for us to be getting together to begin plans for this year. In a way, this year's festival should present greater problems than the first--because the first was so successful. You never want to stand still on something like this, and topping last year's program will present a real challenge.

We hope that every dance club that was in this last year will be back, and that every club will have their representative at the meeting.

APRIL 25, at 8:00 P.M. RECREATION OFFICE
