Historic Oregon District Walking Tour

Before the bustle of the convention, enjoy a leisurely walk and lunch (at own expense) in Dayton's most interesting neighborhood. Just a stone's throw from the Convention Center, a local historian will guide you through the Oregon District's history and streets. Born in the 1800's on the banks of the Miami & Erie Canal, the District has seen its fortunes rise and fall and rise again.

Walk the brick streets to view lovely restored homes nestled side by side with new construction that seems indistinguishable from the old. Hitching posts line the streets. Stroll the art galleries and eclectic shops that border the residential area. The Oregon District is also a destination for great dining, with a wide variety of restaurants at its center.

The Oregon District Historic Walking Tour starts at 12 noon on Friday May 6, 2011 at the Convention Center, takes three hours, including a stop for lunch, and costs $15. Discover this unique neighborhood through the eyes of long time residents who treasure it as one of Dayton's gems.
